

PURPLE REIGN

THE PALETTE'S ROYAL
SHADE GETS ITS DUE.

By Michael Muzquiz

Your eyes are not deceiving you. If, suddenly, shades of thistle, mauve and amethyst seem to be everywhere you turn, you can blame the folks at Pantone. The global authority on palette has spoken, recently naming Radiant Orchid as the color of the year for 2014. Citing the "captivating" and "magical" qualities of the purple shade, the company praised the hue's abilities to inspire confidence and emanate joy. Who doesn't want that in their home? So take a cue from royalty, nature and, heck, even Prince, and make it your exclamation mark when it comes to design this year.

1. DELICATE TOUCH

Windsor sofa, $12,950, by Arketipo Firenze at Addison House, Aventura

2. LIGHT THE WAY

Voli chandelier, $344-$544, by Adriano Paschele for Stamp at Poltrona Frau Group, Design District

3. SPOT ON!

Area rug, $93-$180 per square foot, by Atelier Yukohama for Henzel Studio at Anima Domus, Design District

4. STONE AGE

Agate coasters with gold electroplate trim, $125 each, at Jonathan Adler, Design District

5. ON THE SURFACE

Around the Roses occasional table, $1,790, by Luca Nichetto and Massimo Gardini for Moroso at 4141 Design, Design District

6. VASES LOADED

Edizioni del Pesce vase, $620-$1,800, by Gaetano Pesce at MedinItaly, Design District